PETITION FOR WRIT OF CERTIORARI
TO THE UNITED STATES COURT OF APPEALS FOR THE NINTH CIRCUIT

Lucila G. Ames petitions for a writ of certiorari to determin if I am a vexatious litigant. If I will receive Polydore J. Stockmans deceased, Real Estate that he owned at the time of his death, if I will br pay for damages.

statment - I am not an attorney.

I am plaintiff in Pro Per, because no attorney will take my case. Legal Aid said, we can not help you. Since October 19, 1981, Santa Barbara Superior Court has been (blocking) my case.

STATMENT OF THE CASE

On October 29, 1948. Case NO. 40092.

My mother- Rebecca Melendez sold me Polydore J. Stockmans, deceased real Estate. I put it through Escrow. Escrow said, she could not sell, because she didn't have clear title. She said, she would clear title for me. Pier Gherini - respondent's father as administrator, cleared title to Polydore J. Stockmans, deceased Estate (in my mother's name) Rebecca Melendez. He knew that the Family Service agency of Santa Babara wanted the disput land. He sold the land by giving the incorrect land discription in Judgment 40092. It discribes a portion of an ally. (All I got is a portion of an ally.)

Family Service Agency of Santa Barbara knew that the disput parcel was stolen. Thy wanted the land and thy took it. Part of the land was convayed to the City. The City knew the land was stolen. They said, they couln't do anything about it. That it had to be settled in Court. It was recorded that Mildred Velentine-Excutive director of the Family Service Agency of Santa Barbara, gavePolydore J. Stockmans, deceased Estate to the Family Service Agency. I talked to Mildred Velentine. I ask her how could you give the land. It is not yours to give. She said, (we want it and we havit it now.) I took my case to attorney Shamous OmCfaddn. (my own atttorney closed P.J. Stockmans, deceased Estate records.) I made a motion to open the records. Judge Jensen deceased, said, motion denied.If you bring this case into court again.I am going to put in jail. On August 22,1957.Family Service sued me for damages and trespassing. Judgment was for the Family Service Agency. Since February 19, 1981, before he assumed the bench Judge William L. Gordon told the court that it (appeared) that I am a vexatious litigant. That there is no reasonable probability that I will prevail in the litigation. On October 19, 1981. The court declared me a vexatious litigant (on a hear say.) The court is using vexatious litigant as an antidote solely to delay my case. (It has never been proven that I am a vexatious litigant.) Vexatious litigant has to be individually established for any given law suit. On July 19, 1974. The court precluded me from filing any action in Santa Barbara County. By Court Orders.

ORDERS

- 1 - No. 54255. Dated Jun 17, 1974. Order by Jensen-deceased.
- 2 - August 12, 1981. Order by counsel Don Vickers.

3 - NO Misc, # 491. Dated April 14, 1983

Order by Judge Bruce WM. Dodds.

4 - NO. 146747. Dated March 14, 1984. Order

by Judge Bruce WM. Dodds.

5 - NO. 97879. Dated December 17, 1987

Order by Judge Bruce WM. Dodds.

Refusal change of venue. There is no known authority for him to make such an authorization. In September 25, 1982. My mother Rebecca Memendez died. She willed me P.J. Stockmans deceased, Real-Estate that he owned at the time of his death. On the probate of will. I asked Judge Dodds if I could the rules on will drafting. He said, you may not. I told him, that there is a current appeal. That it was reversed and remanded for further proceedings. He took the appeal and said, (I'll put it aside.) (He did not honor the appeal.) I told him that contestant will is not valid, because it is altered from March to October. Judgment was for contestant.

Having been precluded from filing actions in Santa Barbara County. I took my actions to Ventura. In ventura my cases were DISMISSED FOR LACK OF JURISDICTION Gherini respondent told the court that it is clear that I am a vexatious litigant, that "actions" should be dismissed; sactions should be awarded; fees and cost should be awarded; security posted; and the clerk of the Circuit Court Ordered not to accept any further filings. He also wrote a letter to Judge Joe D. Hadden, and advise against my case. -see letter and answer. Ventura Superior court granted respondent motion for change of venue, to Santa Barbara Superior Court.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

SANTA BARBARA SUPERIOR COURT made a sua Order direction its Clerk not to accept motion. Left my case in limbo, in no court at all. I appealed to the State Supreme Court. The State Supreme denied my appeal. See opinin of the Court of appeal of California.

REASONS FOR GRANTING THE WRIT

This case involves important issues to the disput parcel. I am entitled to Summery Judgment Quieting its Title and traspass. I have Competent Means that I hold Title to the disput paecel. Family Service Agency of Santa Barbara are with out right. They made entries upon said property without right.

CONCLUSION

I demand that Respondent- John gherini prove that I am a vexatious litigant.

Petition for writ of certiorari should be granted granted. Will the court please honor the current appeal for Summery Judgment? It is Substantial Evidence that I am not a vexatious litigant, and that I hold title to the disput parcel.

My case is of imperative Plubic importance as to justify deviation from my practice and to require immediate settlement i

This court 28 U.S.C. § 2101 (e).

Adequate relief cannot be obtained in any other form or from any other court.

NATURE OF PROCEEDINGS:

ORDER ON COURT OWN MOTION RE SANTA BARBARA
SUPERIOR COURTS REFUSAL TO HONOR AN ORDER
CHANGING VENUE.

The Court is in receipt of the December 8, 1987 minute order from the Superior court, County of Santa Barbara (Hon. Bruce WM. Dodds), entitled "Denial of Court Authorization to Accept Documents for Filing." In connection therewith, the Clerk of the Santa Barbara Superior Court phsically returned of case notwithstanding this Court's September 15, 1987 order granting a change of venue on motion of defendant John Gherini

This Court has serious doubts that one superior court, in essence, refuse to honor an order changing venue and overrule a determination by another. In any event, the December 8, 1987 Santa Barbara order involves the parties and the instant suit in no superior court at all. Rather than engage a "pingPong" match and reorder the matter transferred to Santa Barbara, the Clerk of this Court directed to: (1) retain the documents in Ventura Superior Court, File No. 97879; and, (2) give notice of this minute order the other, or both might seek relief from the Court of Appeal, Second Appellate District, Division Six.

In view of the foregoing, we deem it unnecessary to discuss other points raised by respondent, and considered by us, relating to the sufficiency of its affidavits on the question of ownership by title and the lack of any deficiency in the motion for summary judgment, in that it was noticed upon affidavits as well as "the papers, pleadings, files, records, and proceedings in the action." It should be understood that we have considered the pleadings and the facts solely from the standpoint of their competency upon a summary judgment proceedings.

(The attempted appeal from the judgment denominated "Order on Motion for Summary Judgment" dated August 5, 1957, is dismissed: the judgment dated September 3, 1957, from which this appeal has been taken, is reversed and the cause remanded for further proceedings.)

9:00a.m. Room 41.

Dear Judge Hadden:

I represent my father, Pier Gherini, and William Gordon, who is now Judge of the Superior Court of Santa Barbara County. Before Judge Gordon assumed the bench, He was involved in prior litigation with the plaintiff Lucila G. Ames. As indicated by the Application, the plaintiff Lucila G. Ames has been previously determined by the Court's Order to be a vexatious litigant, which she admits in the papers filed by her as plaintiff in pro per. Obviously, Ventura County is the improper venue, in view of the fact that all the parties and all prior litigation have been in the County of Santa Barbara.

Additionally, the real estate referred to in her Declaration is also in Santa Barbara County.

Because she is a vexatious litigant, I feel that the most expeditious way to handle the matter is through the enclosed Ex Parte Application. Otherwise, other motions would have to be made, in addition to her motion set for October 3, 1984, in Room 41. Because of the plaintiff's pending motion, I would appreciate knowing as soon as possible whether or not the matter can be dismissed pursuant to the enclosed Application.

Respectfully yours,

JOHN GHERINI

Re: Lucila G. Ames vs John gherini
Ventura Superior Court No. 89127

Dear Mr. Gherini:

Thank you for your letter of September 12, 1985.

As you are no doubt aware, in addition to establishing a pattern of unseccessful litigantion, the Court must make a finding that there is not a reasonable probability that the plaintiff will prevail in the litigation against the moving defendant and thus a vexatious litigant status must be individually established for any lawsuit. So even though the order you furnished me showing dismissal based on vexatious litigant status in Santa Barbara on an earlier case, it does not establish that status as to the instant case.

I have no difficulty at all in empathizing with your concerns, but the relief you seek does not appear appropriate.
Very truly yours

-----)

This is the most recent appeal in a case that Lucila G. Ames has been unsuccessfully litigating and relitigating in various actions since 1974. Having been found to be a vexatious ligigant in Santa Barbara Superior Court, she filed the instant action in Ventura Superior Court. The Ventura Court granted respondent Ghe ini's motion for a change of venue to Santa Barbara. the Santa Barbara Superior made a sua sponte order directing its Clerk not to accept the case. The Ventura Court, questioning the appropriateness of the Santa Barbara Order, accepted custody of file and invited the parties to seek our advise. Ames brought the matter to us by way of appeal rather than applying for extraordinary relief. We dismissed the appeal for lack of an appealable order, and suggested that further proceedings to break the impasse between the Ventura and Santa Barbara courts might be avoided if the Santa Barbara court would accept transfer and dismiss the case pursuant to the inherent power to prevent the abuse of process. (Citing Muller V. Tanner (1969) 2 Cal. App.3d 438, 443.)

The Santa Barbara court accepted our suggestion, and by an unsigned minute order accepted and dismissed the case.

Because Code of Civil Procedure section 581d requires that an order dismissing an action be signed by the court, an unsigned minute order is ineffectual and not appealable. (9 Witkin, Cal. Procedure (3d. ed. 1985.) Appeal, §75 p. 99) However, in order to avoid a waste of judicial time, the proper procedure is for us to instruct the court in the event to appealable order of dismissal.

We treat the notice of appeal as a premature but effective appeal from that order. (see Hamm v. Elkin (1987) 196 Cal. App.3d 1343,1345.)

Ames raises no cognizable issues in the instant appeal. Apparently she wishes us to determine that she is not a vexatious litigant, and to decide the case in her favor on the merits. Those issues had previously been determined against her, the judgments or orders have long since become final, and we have no power to disturb them on appeal. (7 Witkin, Cal. Procedure (3d ed. 1985) Judgment, ¶188, p. 621.)

The only question remaining is whether this appeal warrants the imposition of sanctions against Ames.

Sanctions should be used most sparingly to deter only the most egregious conduct. (In re Marriage of Flaherty (1982) 31 Cal. 3d. 673,651.) Ames' first appeal was at the suggestion of the trial court. Although this appeal was undertaken on her own initiative, her conduct insofar as the appellate process is concerned was not so egregious as to warrant sanctions at this time.

However, Ames should not receive encouragement from our reluctance to impose sanctions at this time. She should understand that her dispute with Gherini in this matter has ended. The Courts have decided against her, and she risks sanctions if she attempts to pursue the matter further.

The trial court is instructed to enter a nunc pro tunc judgment of dismissal in accordance with the requirements set forth in Code of Civil procedure section 581d. That judgment is affirmed. Respondent is awarded cost on appeal.
